"100 ANSWERS ABOUT VEINS' DISEASES" is a book that should be on our bookshelves. It is well written and everybody can easily understand it, it answers to all frequent questions you can hear from an outpatient room. The "preface" has been written by Augusto Zaninelli and Gian Franco Gensini and the "introduction" has been edited by Gaetano Lanza and Alessio Redaelli. It is distributed by DEHONIANA LIBRI, you can find it in the best bookstores or contacting the distributor itself.
