

Symphonies of tastes, a book with great pictures and very interesting contents....

Commented by Alessio Redaelli

Few years ago, invited by a dear friend, Marco, I went to a restaurant near Lodi, soaked in the fog and in the country, during the winter season and with flowers that were just about to blossom.

I decided to go and after a quite long trip (I live near Milan), brought there by my faithful navigator, we get in an isolated town, where you can never imagine to eat so good.

We had a really great night, near the fire place while eating and drinking.

In the end, after the check (it was right too!!), I wanted to meet the owner and I asked his wife, a very nice woman, if it was possible.

Obviously Brambini showed up, and we had a nice chat for few minutes about recipes and aesthetic.. we are colleagues in the end: we both look for beauty. In his case he also looks for goodness!!!!!!!!!!

Then I asked him to send me some of his recipes and he did: he sent me two of his best!

After two days, one of it arrived. You can find it in my recipe section:

- Eggs with Truffle and Cheese Fondue

I went there again and I have to say that the restaurant is welcoming, well taken care, and the owner has always something new to present.

As you all know I am always independent and Sergio did not pay me!

I surely advice you to go to his restaurant because it is worth it!

Hostaria San Carlo, Via Colombare 12 Moscazzano 26010 Cremona,

Lately I sent him a request for a new recipe and he told me he published a book together with other cooks.

I told him I was offended he did not send me one copy, because I would have appreciated a lot and I would have present it to all my friends!

Sergio was prepared and after two days I got the book!!!

Obviously I read it right after he sent it to me and here there are my impressions: Graphics: very good Pictures: very beautiful Culinary Interest: very interesting

What else we have to say: I really like it and I have to recommend it to you, because the substance is good. I found unpublished and innovative recipes that I will proposed you.

A big "BRAVO" goes to the editor who I am looking foreword to meet some time soon, Mrs Roberta Schira, www.robortaschira.com who had the idea and realized the book.

I recommend you to go to Sergio's restaurant to find the book, but if you can not, you can simply call him and he will give you all the information you need: phone number 0373 66190

Buon appetito!
